We accept cash-on-delivery consignments up to an amount of EURO 2,556.00 and deliver against cash or bank certified cheque.

SystemPlus will not be held liable for and delayed/unaccomplished deliveries as a result of the fact that the consignee did not pay the cash-on-delivery consignments in the stipulated form.

5. Liability

Insofar that these conditions are not otherwise amended, the General German Forwarders' Conditions (ADSp) in the current version are applicable for our business transactions. Any overriding legal provisions which are mandatory, take precedence. Pursuant to the legal provisions pre-scribed in German Commercial Code (HGB), the relevant provisions of the CMR of 1956 in the current version and the Warsaw Agreement of 1929 in the current version shall be applicable. These restrict in Ziff. 23 ADSp the legal liability for goods damages according to § 431 HGB for damages in the custody of the forwarding agent on EUR 5.00 per kg. In case of a contract of multi-modal carriage - including sea transport - contrary to section 23.1.1 to 2 SDR per kg to EURO 1 million or 2 SDR per kg per claim, whichever is the higher.

6. Insurance

SystemPlus has taken out a minimum transport insurance for each consignment in favour of the party ordering the carriage of goods with the following benefits:

- For damage to goods (loss and damage) according to the ADS Freight Insurance 1973, as revised in 1984, a coverage of up to EURO 50,000.00, however, only EURO 1 million at most per lorry load, even when several ordering parties claim damages.

- For damages other than to goods (indirect damages resulting from the goods damage and economic loss) a maximum of EURO 100,000.00.

An insurance coverage sum which exceeds the above amounts may be taken out before entering the transport contract with the payment of a special premium.

7. Comments

In respect to lead times and possible service limitations for specific consignments, as for example customs goods, trade fair consignments, cash-on-delivery consignments, reference should be made to our separate country information sheets.
